Message from All Staff at Roman Road

Thank you for your mature learning attitudes this week, and for the work that you have put into improving your learning this week. Make sure that you have a good weekend, and we will see you on Monday.

Happy Diwali to all our families who observe this festival. We hope that you enjoy spending time with family and friends. Diwali is the Hindu festival of lights with its variations also celebrated in other Indian religions. It symbolises the spiritual "victory of light over darkness, good over evil, and knowledge over ignorance". Celebrated on the next day of Diwali, the other names for Gujarati New Year are Bestu Varas, Varsha Pratipada, and Padwa. Legend has it that the people of Gokul stopped worshipping Indra, the Rain God; instead, they started worshipping the Govardhan Parbat and the cows.

School Class Photos

School photographers will be coming in on Wednesday 15th November 2023 to take class photographs for the whole school. All children must be in their school uniform on this day. Thank you

The Roman Road PTFA need your help.

The school PTFA have the opportunity to receive additional funding for our children and the school community and we need your help. If you live, work or learn in the East Ham area you are able to vote for this, so please either scan in the QR code on the attached or visit

<https://newhamcocreate.co.uk/en/ideas/roman-road-primary-school-ptfa-funding-request>

The more votes we get the more chance of accessing the funding so please forward to anyone in the area who is able to vote and support us. In getting a high vote count we can apply the funds to the improvement of school activities, improve inclusive learning and forest school area. Contact the PTFA on romanroadpta@gmail.com if you have any questions. Thank you.

If your child/ren are absent from school, please call the school by 8am and leave a message on the School Absence Line– Option 1
